Hours less than twenty-four (24) accrued in excess of those evenly divisible by eight (8) shall be carried over to the following year.

- D) Birth of a child to the employee or the wife of an employee as provided in Section 5 (Family and Medical Leave) of the City of Kelso Handbook*.
- E) Illness or injury directly related to the employee's job (less any amount paid by the State to the employee for time loss for the same period of time as described in the City of Kelso Handbook 5.2; 4.10).

If an employee knows in advance of a medical condition or procedure which will require the use of sick leave, the sick leave must be approved in advance by the employee's supervisor. In the event of an emergency, employees must notify their supervisor as soon as possible at the beginning of the period of illness or physical inability to work.

If an employee is absent due to an illness for three (3) or more consecutive work days, the Chief of Police may require that the employee provide a statement from the employee's physician. This statement should include the nature of the illness or physical inability to work and the anticipated length of time the employee will be required to be away from work. (See section 5 – Family and Medical Leave.) A doctor's certificate showing fitness for duty may also be required upon the employee's return to work, depending on the individual circumstances.

SECTION 4. FUNERAL LEAVE. Employees shall be required to utilize accrued time off (vacation, personal or compensatory time off, and sick leave if a sickness or injury is involved) before any non-paid time off shall be utilized. All leave granted in accordance with state or federal laws whether paid or unpaid shall count against the 12 weeks periods and each shall run concurrently.

Employee is responsible to pay any remaining monthly premium cost, if applicable. Employee's portion of the premium shall be deducted monthly. An Employee may only opt out if eligible for alternative insurance coverage as defined by the Employer's provider's plan requirements. No more than twenty-five percent (25%) of employees throughout the organization may choose to opt out of Employer-provided coverage. Eligible employees choosing to opt out shall make their requests in writing and will be approved by the Employer's human resources manager on a first-come/first-served basis until the limit is reached.

In the case of disciplinary actions, appealable to the Civil Service Commission and grievable under the terms of this contract, a written election of remedies shall be made after receipt of the STEP 2 response. The arbitrator shall, in his decision, specify whether or not the decision is retroactive, and the effective date thereof. No decision of the arbitrators in one case shall create a basis for retroactive adjustments in another case.

- E) Time limits specified herein may be waived by mutual agreement in writing. Failure of the employer to respond within the prescribed or agreed time limits at any step shall entitle the Association to proceed to the next step. be in conflict with the law, both parties shall meet immediately for the purpose of renegotiating any agreement on the provision or provisions so invalidated; provided further, that if the parties fail to reach such an agreement, this contract and the remaining provisions thereof shall be and remain in full force and effect. APPENDIX C - INTERNAL DISCIPLINE POLICY

Properly administered internal discipline within the Kelso Police Department is necessary to fulfill our law enforcement mission and to achieve the high morale that can only derive from the respect of a community that has confidence in the responsibility of their police. It is therefore necessary to implement a procedure wherein the public will be assured of a thorough inquiry into complaints against the integrity or official acts of police employees, which will provide the factual basis for fair and reasoned personnel action and which will protect those same employees from false or, frivolous complaints.

COMPLAINTS - SUFFICIENCY INITIATION - REVIEW

Sufficiency of a Complaint

- A) Any complaint that is based upon a disagreement in judgment, attitude, or other concern of a supervisory nature will be resolved by review via the chain of command.
- B) A complaint that an employee has violated a law or a department regulation, which is supported by reasonable cause to believe that the violation may have occurred as alleged is a complaint sufficient for investigation and may be addressed by either supervisory review or an internal investigation depending upon the totality of the circumstances disclosed on the face of the complaint.
- C) Whenever a Kelso Police Officer or Reserve Officer either kills or gravely injures another person in the line of duty, an internal investigation will be immediately initiated to ascertain the facts thereof.

Initiation of a Complaint

- A) The process of receiving and investigating complaints against employees will be initiated by the completion of a complaint in the format specified by the Chief of Police or his designee.

Complaints may be received from:

- A) Any person may initiate a complaint against an employee by completing the statement form available from the supervisor or commander of the employee against whom the complaint is made, or from the Chief of Police. Any person who wishes to file a complaint will be provided full access to the complaint process and will not be intentionally intimidated or discouraged from proceeding.
- B) Employees must report known violations of law or department policies, rules, and regulations by other department employees. Such reports will be made on the statement form and be accompanied by all available supportive material.
- C) Anonymous complaints will be received and will be immediately reported on the statement form as completely as possible. Although anonymous complaints will necessarily be given less weight than those made by identified sources, they cannot be ignored and must be reviewed for sufficiency and acted upon where found to be sufficient.
- D) All completed complaint forms, regardless of source, will be placed in an envelope, immediately sealed by the complainant or employee receiving the complaint, and referred to the Division Commander of the subject employee for preliminary review. Unless the complaint alleges criminal conduct, or the complaint is from another employee of the Department, the subject employee will be provided with a copy of the complaint within a reasonable time after the Chief of Police is made aware of the complaint.

Review of a Complaint

The Division Commander of the subject employee will review the complaint for sufficiency and will either refer it to the employee's supervisor for review via chain of command for consideration its sufficiency as the basis of an internal investigation.

- C) Advise the officer that the answers to the questions will not be used against the officer in criminal proceedings.

The employee will thereupon be advised of his constitutional rights and afforded immediate opportunity to obtain counsel before being asked to give a statement regarding his actions. Invocation of any constitutional right by an employee having been advised thereof shall not be regarded as failure to cooperate in the internal investigation.

- A) In all investigations of suspected violations of department regulations wherein criminal charges are not contemplated, the employee to be interviewed will be advised at the start of the interview in writing of:
 1. The nature of the investigation.
 2. His part (suspect, witness, other) in the investigation as it is then known to the investigators. That the employee has the right to a reasonable delay in the commencement of the interview, for the purpose of obtaining the employee's Association representative.
